Farm News

By Jim Smith, County Agent

Three flue-growers have nine different varieties growing on their farms for other growers to observe, Lacy Sharpe has Va. 12; John Hunter, McNair 10, Bell 16, Speight 31 and Coker 187-H; Henry Mann, Bell 15, Coker 316, McNair H-2 and McNair 121. Several of these varieties look particularly good. They may have a place on your farm.

Fire Cured Variety Trials

John Gunter, near Liberty Chapel, has six fire-cured tobaccos under test. They are replicated, One new experimental line referred to as Va. 0313 looks promising.

Wheat Variety Test

Five growers compared a relatively new variety of wheat, Coker 47-27 with wheat of their choice this past year. On the five tests, average gave Coker 47-27 an average of 35.8 bushels per acre, against 32.4 for other wheat. Four plan to seed the new variety again this year. Growers were R. M. and Walker Webb, Walter Henry, Ed Harvey, John Gunter and Jack Caldwell. Copy of detailed results is available from county agent's office.

Barley Variety Test

Wong vs Davie barley was tested on seven farms this year. Davis is a new variety that has done unusually well at the experiment station in recent years. Test average: Davie 54.3 bushels per acre; Wong 46.6 bushels per acre. Six indicate they will sow the Davis again this fall, Its strong point is its strong straw. Those participating in the test were: H. C. Pulliam, Walter Henry, John Colley, Ed Harvey Carson Bros., R. S. Ellis and Son, and Jack Caldwell.

Marsh Reuuion

Descendants of the late Stephen Thomas and Elvira Gordon Marsh with their families and friends, met for the annual reunion at the American Legion Hall in Appomattox on Sunday, August 20.

More than 200 people were present.

Rob Lucado, of Appomattox presided at a brief business meeting, preceding dinner,

Dr. Merwyn Williamson, of Canton, Missouri, conducted the devotional. Reports were made by the secretary, Mrs. L. L. Crocker, of Lovingston, who also reported a set of by-laws, drawn up by a committee, which were adopted. Included in the by-laws was a proposal to hold the annual reunion henceforth on the second Sunday in August, at the American Legion Hall.

Officers for the next two years were elected: T. G. Marsh, of Appomattox, president; Alfred Marsh, of Appomattox, vice - president; Mrs. Robert Franklin, of Lynchburg, secretary, and Mrs. J. W. Childers, of Appomattox, treasurer.

The Rev. W. L. Ayres, of the Appomattox Methodist Circuit, offered thanks for the bountiful dinner.
